SUNDAY SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

ABOUT 150 NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED AT FIVE CHURCHES.

TWO NEW PREACHERS PREACH TO MEMBERS

Rev. Wiles and Dr. Colle Both May Receive Calls—Many Organizations Started and Perfected.

Sunday services at all the Protestant churches in Maryville were well attended, and many new members "lined up" during the Scoville revival meetings were taken in.

Rev. Wiles Preaches.

The Rev. T. H. Wiles of Louisville, Ky., occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church at both the morning and evening services. This was also the annual home-coming day, and there were 750 in attendance at the basket dinner held in the basement of the church at noon. In the afternoon reports of the departments of the church were read and the Rev. Mr. Wiles made a short talk.

At the evening services ten new members were received, two by letter.

A meeting of the congregation of the Baptist church will be held Wednesday evening and the matter of extending a call to Mr. Wiles will be considered. The members were well pleased with the visiting minister, and it is likely that a call will be extended to him to succeed the Rev. L. M. Hale. Mr. Wiles left this morning for Marshall, Mo., where he will be joined by Mrs. Wiles, and they will go on to their home at Louisville.

Dr. Colle at Presbyterian.

Dr. S. A. Colle of Nashville, Tenn., occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church Sunday. Twenty new members were received in this church, one being by letter. Dr. Colle will also preach both morning and evening at this church next Sunday, and it is probable that a call will be extended to him to become their pastor.

Dr. Colle is a graduate of the Tusculun college of Greenville, Tenn., and of Lane Theological seminary of Cincinnati. His first pastorate was at Greenville, Tenn., where he was located for ten years. He was at Knoxville, Tenn., for six years, and at Lebanon, Tenn., for nine years.

'Twas Rally Day.

The Buchanan Street Methodist church had its annual rally day, and there were 221 in attendance at Sunday school. A young men's Bible class was organized with the Rev. R. C. Holliday as teacher and Prof. Berger as assistant teacher. Fred Truett is president of the class and Ray Maul secretary. Miss Gene Aley gave a reading at the Sunday school hour.

Ten new members were received in the church, two being by letter.

The Epworth League of the Buchanan Street Methodist church elected its officers at the league last evening. They were: President, Miss Mary Rooker; vice presidents, W. H. Burr, Cassie Abshire, Verna Aley and Eva Ashford; secretary, Melvin Neal; treasurer, Eva Bagley; Epworth Era agent, Stella Burr.

62 Members Received.

At the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday sixty-two members were received, sixteen by letter. At the Sunday school there were 417 in attendance.

The First Christian church received fifty new members at the evening service. They expect to add about 200 members from the Scoville revival, sixty of them being by letter. The delegates selected by the church to the national convention being held at Des Moines this week are: The Rev. C. Emerson Miller, George L. Wilfley, W. C. Frank, Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Henry Westfall. Many of these delegates, with a number of other members of the church, will attend the convention this week. The Rev. Mr. Miller left for Des Moines this morning and will be in attendance all week.

S. S. Organizes.

The Sunday school perfected its new organization into a graded school system, and the departments are the cradle roll, primary, intermediate, senior and adult.

Mrs. Lee Crossan will have charge of the cradle roll department.

Miss Florence Young will be superintendent of the primary, with Mrs. Fred P. Robinson as assistant. There are eight classes in this department, four for girls and four for boys. The primary department is for children up to 8 years old.

Mrs. Ed Gray is the superintendent of the junior department, with Miss Ada Hawkins as secretary. There are eight classes and are for children from 8 to 12 years old. The teachers for the girls' classes are Mrs. George Palfreyman, Miss Nina Bent, Mrs. Fred Newlon and Mrs. C. Emerson Miller. For the boys' classes they are: George Palfreyman, Lloyd Hartley and Don Roberts.

The intermediate department for those between 13 and 16 years will be in charge of W. A. Miller as superintendent and Miss Fay Meyers as secretary. The boys' classes will be taught by Ed Gray, Henry Westfall, Prof. Cauffield and Prof. Magee. The teachers of the girls' classes will be Mrs. A. M. Crooke, Miss Ella Hazelrigg, Miss Phyllis Sayler, Miss Lois Halley.

The senior department will be composed of young women and men. A. M. Crooke will be the superintendent of this department, with Miss Bertha Anderson as secretary. Mayor A. S. Robey will be the teacher for young men between 17 and 18; Prof. J. M. McDonald, between 19 and 21. For the young women, the first class will be taught by Miss Mary Ford; the second, by Miss Laura Hawkins; third, Miss Mary Boggs; fourth, Miss Fannie Hope.

In the adult department, the Rev. Mr. Miller will have charge of the men's Bible class; Ellis G. Cook of the young married people; Mrs. C. B. Roberts of the Loyal Women's class, and W. W. Glass of the second women's class.

Fred P. Robinson is superintendent of the Christian Sunday school, with J. R. Brink as secretary.

Even standard railroad stock fell three to six points. United States steel fell down almost to eight points.

NEW RALLY FEATURE

3,000 FEET OF FILM TO BE SHOWN AT DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

NATIONAL CON. SCENES

Big Tent to Be Put Up at H. S. Grounds—About 10,000 Persons Expected From All Parts of the State.

In addition to the prominent Democratic speakers that will be in Maryville Thursday for the big Democratic rally, three thousand feet of film will be shown at the opening of the night meeting, beginning at 7 o'clock. These pictures will be scenes from the national convention held in St. Louis last June. It gives a comprehensive idea of how a national convention is conducted, picturing all the important scenes inside the convention hall in St. Louis. It also gives as titles, excerpts from speeches made by the distinguished orators of the convention, and then flashes a view of the speaker and of the audience. The film is made by the national Democratic committee and has only been exhibited at three towns in Missouri.

The big tent will be put up Wednesday at the high school grounds in the same place as it was for the Scoville services. It will be lighted and will also have a number of stoves in case of cool weather. Comfortable canvas seats have been provided.

The afternoon meeting will begin at 1:30, o'clock and Vice President Thomas R. Marshall will probably be the first speaker. Senator Hoke Smith will be the evening speaker, and will talk right after the moving pictures. Other speakers will be former Governor A. M. Dockery, Congressman Charles F. Booher, Charles M. Hay, Judge John M. Dawson and James W. McKnight, candidate for state senator.

Many prominent Democrats from all over northwest Missouri will attend this meeting. It will probably be the biggest meeting ever held in Maryville or this part of the state. The meeting has been well advertised, and if the weather is good probably 10,000 people will be in the city that day.

In addition to the convention film shown, local views of the crowd in Maryville Thursday, and of other scenes of the afternoon meeting will be shown that night. Ralph Marcell will take the pictures.

INSPECT PURE BRED HERDS

Two South African Cattle Men in Nodaway County Yesterday Visiting the Stock Farms.

N. J. Worthington of Gwelo, Rhodesia, South Africa, and W. K. Markle of Capetown, South Africa, were in Nodaway county yesterday inspecting the different herds of cattle. They are making an inspection of the different breeds of cattle over the United States. They were accompanied by Dean Rusk of the animal husbandry department of the University of Illinois.

Sunday morning they inspected the herds of C. D. & E. F. Caldwell and O. F. Wilson & Son at Burlington Junction. In the afternoon they were brought to Maryville by C. D. Caldwell and the party visited the Bellows Bros.' herd of Shorthorns. From there they were taken to Skidmore to see the F. C. Barber & Son herd of Shorthorns.

Mr. Worthington owns extensive gold mine interests in Rhodesia, and is interested in improving the cattle of his country. In making a tour of this country inspecting different herds, Mr. Markle insists that the present business relations in pure bred cattle could be greatly improved by judicious advertising in South Africa.

H. K. JOHNS WINS CONTEST

Gets 32-Piece Aluminum Set in Guessing Contest of Garrett Hardware Company.

H. K. Johns won the 32-piece aluminum ware set in the Garrett Hardware guessing contest. The number of pieces in the Cole's Hot Blast range was 908. His guess was 913. There were several hundred guesses, the nearest other guess being 900. Mr. Johns says that the reason that he guessed 913 was because he was in a railroad wreck once where the number of the train was 913. In view of the fact that he was the only one not injured, he figured that this must be a pretty lucky number for him.

ADMIT U.BOAT SITUATION SERIOUS

DISMISSAL OF GERMAN AMBASSADORS LOOKED FOR ANY TIME.

NO AM. PASSENGERS ARE YET REPORTED

All Crews of the Destroyed Ships Are Saved—U. S. to Have Hard Time to Remain Neutral.

Bulletin.

Shadow Lawn, Oct. 9.—President Wilson authorizes the statement that Germany will be held to its promises.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Germany's submarine warfare east of the American coast has caused the deepest concern in official circles. The situation is admittedly the most serious of the present war, so far as the United States is concerned. The authorities are looking any moment for word confirming the report that there are American victims. The officials very frankly say that such development means instant dismissal of the German ambassadors, according to the direct words of Wilson. All high officials refuse to discuss save in general terms. No information is obtainable from Shadow Lawn.

The Newport naval station reported the American destroyer flotilla still searching for crew of the Canadian steamer Kingston. The report also said no additional victims of the submarines have been reported.

All Have Landed at Newport.

In the summary of the various reports from Rear Admiral Knight, commander at Newport, it is stated all passengers and members of the crews of the steamers sunk by German submarines now landed with the exception of the crew of Kingston, which is said to be in boats thirty miles east of Nantucket, and seventeen destroyers are searching for them.

Approximately 220 passengers and crew of various vessels sunk landed at Newport and included thirty-three women and ten children from the Stephano.

The ability of the United States to maintain its absolute independence and strict neutrality between the European belligerents hang in the balance today. For the first time in nearly a week Secretary of State Lansing hurried to his desk and stated what the outcome would be no official would hazard a guess today.

Submarines Shifted Base?

When no word was heard today of further operations of the German submarines officials declared probably they shifted base. Some believe it will next be heard either in the path of vessels bound for St. Lawrence or East Virginia capes. It is said by one destroyer that the crew believe they saw German supply ship attending the submarines.

shipping off the eastern coast of the United States yesterday.

Four British, one Dutch and one Norwegian steamer were sent to the bottom or left crippled derelicts off Nantucket shoals.

Last night, under the light of the hunter's moon, the destroyer flotilla of the United States Atlantic fleet was picking up passengers and crews of the destroyed vessels and bringing them into Newport, R. I.

So far as known there was no loss of life, though at a late hour the crew of the British steamer Kingston had not been accounted for.

A submarine held up the American steamer Kansan, bound from New York for Genoa with steel for the Italian government, but on establishing her identity, allowed the American to proceed. The Kansan came into Boston harbor late tonight for her usual call here.

Believed to Be U-53.

The hostile submarine is believed to be the U-53, which paid a call to Newport Saturday and disappeared at sunset. Some naval men, however, declared that at least two submarines are operating close to the American shore, though outside the three-mile limit.

The ships were the Strathdene, a British freighter, which left New York Saturday for Bordeaux; the Westpoint, a British freighter, bound from London to Newport News; the Stephano, a British liner, plying regularly between New York, Halifax and St. Johns, N. F., bound for New York; the Kingston, British freighter; Elomersdijk, a Dutch freighter, bound from New York for Rotterdam, and the Christian Knudson, Norwegian freighter, bound from New York to London.

The destruction of the Stephano of the Red Cross line was perhaps the biggest prize of the day. The craft has been sold to the Russian government and would have been used as an ice breaker after her present trip. This vessel carried nearly 100 first and second cabin passengers, including many American tourists.

R. was celebrated last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Craig, Mrs. C. H. Coe, Mrs. J. V. Embree and Miss Ethel Embree were the hostesses.

The business session was held first, with Mrs. Will Montgomery, vice regent presiding in the absence of Mrs. C. T. Bell, who is regent. Delegates and alternates were chosen to attend the state convention at Louisiana, which will be held there October 26, 27 and 28. Mrs. C. T. Bell and Mrs. D. E. Mills were chosen delegates with Mrs. Will Montgomery and Mrs. C. C. Corwin as alternates. After the business session the guests were called to the library by a bugle call played by Miss Mary Coe who was dressed as a boy scout. The bugle used was the one owned by Nathaniel Sisson, and on which was played the last "charge" on the Federal side just before the surrender of Lee.

In the dining room the table was decorated with numerous flags and centered with a large cake covered with white frosting and trimmed with red roses. On this cake were four red candles in memory of the four years since the organization. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. The cake was cut by Mrs. Corwin with a sword use by Paul Sisson in the Spanish-American war. Mrs. Corwin was accorded this honor because she has been a D. A. TWO-YEAR-OLD CHILD DIES

Baby Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wray Dead With Toxin Poisoning—Funeral Today.

Mayfred Donan Wray, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wray, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. F. Donan, in Mound City, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, following twenty-four hours illness with toxin poisoning.

Mrs. Wray and little Mayfred went to Mound City Saturday morning for a visit with Mrs. Wray's mother, Mrs. Donan. Shortly after their arrival in Mound City the child took sick, and after twenty-four hours of suffering died. No actual cause of the poisoning was known by the doctor, who thought perhaps that the condition had been coming on the child for some time, although she appeared to be perfectly well before Saturday morning.

The funeral services were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the home of J. Arthur Wray, on South Main street, the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox in charge. Burial was in Miriam cemetery.

The pall bearers were Russell Neil, Kenneth Strawn, Chester Bennett and Marvin Curnutt.

For Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wray.

God gave to them a tiny bud,
It bloomed beneath their care
Into a precious, lovely flower,
So beautiful, so fair.

Each day the flower more lovely grew,
More perfect every way;
They watched it with unerring care,
Nor thought 'twould fade away.

But ere three summers passed away,
They saw it droop and die;
God thought it best to take it home
To bloom beyond the sky.

That precious flower was Mayfred, dear,
Her face no more they'll see;
She's gone to dwell with Him who said,
"Let the little ones come to me."

Now while their hearts with grief are torn,
They calmly wait the time
When they can join their little one
In fairer lands sublime.

Help them, dear Savior, in this hour
To look to thee alone,
And say that thou doest all things well,
Thy will, not mine, be done.

—Mrs. George L. Reynolds, 627 West Second street.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
